Things to rock your January in the 'Ships and elsewhere

Let's face it, January can be a bit of a weird transition away from the holidays. So what's January all about, and what's up this month in our neck of the woods?

January 6 - 20: The Living Libraries project runs most of the month, with a few unique experiences to be had - see the next two entries...

January 12: Find out just what an expert opinion on the future of literacy is - Michael Ridley will be at the Foreman Art Gallery at 6 p.m.

January 13 and 18: Check out the Living Libraries Events at Bishop's University's Foreman Art gallery. Sign out a book, meet that book, have a conversation with that book...IN a book. For more information, contact Yael at 819-822-9600 ext. 2279.

January 10 is "coming of age" day in Japan.

January 13 and 20: ACE*Bishop's is offering workshops that help you get a handle on your budget, with their free "Credit Crunch" workshops, at Brulerie de Café Lennox, located at 112 Queen, Lennoxville. Social time from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m., workshops from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Find out how to give credit where credit is due...with a coffee while you're at it.

January's birthstone is garnet, which represents constancy.

January 17 is Martin Luther King Day.

January 22: A few hot tickets remain for One Night on the 45th Parallel - support the Make Way for YOUth by purchasing a $40 ticket that gets you supper at La Vieille Douane, a tour of the Border Cinema in mid-revitalization, a visit to Stanstead's Stone Circle and a concert at Checkpoint Charlie featuring Canadian Indie sweethearts Jake and the Leprechauns and opening act Juggling Embers. For more info, email mwfy@townshippers.qc.ca or call 819-566-5717.

January 25 is Burns Night in Scotland.

January's flower is the camellia.

January 26 is Australia Day.

January 29: Epique Times call for Epique Measures...and that means TEAM EPIQUE! For youth in high school, or just venturing into post-secondary, be part of Epique Night - unforgettable events organized by youth from the Richmond area. For more information, look up Team Epique on Facebook, or contact Donald Dubuc, Youth Project Agent for the Richmond region at projunes@ville.richmond.qc.ca or by phone at 819-239-9091.
